

Contribution to Co-authored publications

1. The candidate will copy all co-authored publications since last promotion to a separate document. No need to copy publications in which the candidate is the only PI.
2. Following each publication, the candidate will detail his/her contribution (e.g., theorizing, planning/conducting the studies, writing first draft, etc.).