

Teaching and Exam procedures on Holidays and Fasts- Academic Year 2019-20

- Students observing the listed holidays are permitted to be absent from classes on the following dates, in accordance with section item 6.2.1 in the Teaching Procedures.
- Students who are members of the religions listed and who are unable to take a final exam that is scheduled on a fast day or Holiday, will be provided with a make-up exam, in accordance to section 7.4.2 in the Teaching Procedures.

Muslim Holidays¹

Eid al-Adha	31.7-3.8.2020	On 2.8 no exams are held
New Year (1 Muharram)	20.8.2020
Birthday of the Prophet Muhammad	9.11.2019
Eid al-Fitr (End of Ramadan)	24-26.5.2020	On 24-25.5 no exams are held

Druze Holidays¹

Eid al-Adha	31.7-3.8.2020	On 2.8 no exams are held
Eid al-Khadir	25.01.2020
Nabi Shu'ayb	27.4 - 24.4

Christian Holidays

	Catholic/ Protestant	Orthodox	Armenian
Christmas	*25.12.2019	7.1.2020	19.01.2020	No classes or exams are held
New Year	01.01.2020	14.1.2020	14.01.2020
Easter	12.4.2020	19.4.2020	19-21.4.2020

Ethiopian Jews:

Sigd
------	--

Fasts

Tzom Gedaliah
10 B'Tevet
Ta'anit Esther		Jewish students studying in Jerusalem but residing elsewhere are allowed to be absent from classes from 4:00 PM on this date.
Ramadan¹
17 B'Tammuz
9 B'Av		The university is closed

Comments:

1. Dates of Muslim and Druze holidays may differ by one or two days from the dates shown. Please enquire with The Equal Opportunities Unit for Arab Students, Dean of Students Office (02-588-0263) as to the exact dates before each holiday