

Teaching and Exam Procedures on Holidays and Fasts- Academic Year 2021-22

- Students observing the listed holidays are permitted to be absent from classes on the following dates, in accordance with section item 6.2.1 in the Teaching Procedures.
- Students who are members of the religions listed and who are unable to take a final exam that is scheduled on a fast day or Holiday, will be provided with a make-up exam, in accordance with section 7.4.2 in the Teaching Procedures.

Muslim Holidays¹

Birthday of the Prophet Muhammad	19.10.2021
Eid al-Fitr (End of Ramadan)	2-5.05.2022	No exams will be held On 4.5.22 no lessons or exams will be held
Eid al-Adha	9-13.07.2022	On 10.7.22 no lessons or exams will be held
New Year (1 Muharram)	29.07.2022

Druze Holidays¹

Eid al-Khadir	25.01.2022
Nabi Shu'ayb	25-28.04.2022
Eid al-Adha	9-13.07.2022	On 10.7.22 no lessons or exams will be held

Christian Holidays

	Catholic/ Protestant	Orthodox	Armenian
Christmas	25.12.2021	07.01.2022	19.01.2022	No lessons or exams will be held
New Year	1.01.2022	14.01.2021	14.01.2022
Easter	17.04.2022	24.04.2022	17.04.2022

Ethiopian Jews

Sigd	29 B'Cheshvan 4.11.2021
------	--------------------------------

Fasts

Tzom Gedaliah	9.09.2021
10 B'Tevet	14.12.2021
Ta'anit Esther	16.03.2022	Jewish students studying in Jerusalem but residing elsewhere are allowed to be absent from classes from 4:00 PM on this date.
Ramadan¹	2.04-1.05.2022
17 B'Tammuz	17.07.2022
9 B'Av	7.08.2022	The university is closed

Comments:

1. Dates of Muslim and Druze holidays may differ by one or two days from the dates shown. Please enquire with The Equal Opportunities Unit for Arab Students, Dean of Students Office (02-588-0263) as to the exact dates before each holiday